Client Rights

Tru East Dignity HomeCare has adopted the following Client Rights as follows:

- 1. be fully informed of their rights and the Agency's requirements governing client responsibilities.
- 2. be fully informed of services available from the Agency.
- 3. be treated with courtesy, consideration, respect, and full recognition of their human dignity and individuality, including privacy during treatment and care for personal needs.
- 4. be dealt with in a manner that recognizes their individuality and is sensitive to and responds to their needs and preferences, including preferences based on ethnic, spiritual, linguistic, familial and cultural factors.
- 5. receive service and be dealt with without regard to race, color, age, sex, sexual orientation, creed, religion, disability, familial and cultural factors.
- 6. receive complete information about their health and recommended treatments, as developed jointly with this Agency.
- 7. receive treatment, care, and services that are adequate, appropriate and in compliance with state, federal and local regulations.
- 8. participate in the development of their care plan and decisions on services to be implemented or treatment to be given.
- 9. provided with information on alternative services that may be available to them.
- 10. participate in a referral to another service provider or a health care institution.
- 11. refuse to participate in experimental research.
- 12. receive reasonable notice of any changes in their service, within an agreed-upon amount of time, before the changes place.
- 13. be informed of the cost of services and procedures and to be informed of all changes in services, procedures, and fees, as they occur.
- 14. refuse services or treatment and be informed of the consequences of that refusal.
- 15. be free from mental, verbal, sexual and physical abuse, neglect, involuntary seclusion and exploitation.
- 16. receive privacy and confidentiality concerning their health, social, and financial circumstances and what takes place in their homes, under laws and Agency policies.
- 17. receive confidential treatment of their personal and medical records.
- 18. approve or refuse the release of their personal or medical records to any individual/entity other than the Agency except when client records are transferred to another service provider or a health facility or as otherwise authorized by law.
- 19. make suggestions or complaints or present grievances to the Agency, government agencies or other entities or individuals without fear of the threat of retaliation.
- 20. receive a prompt response, through an established complaint or grievance procedure, to any complaints, suggestions or grievances they may have
- 21. cared for by qualified, competent and trained personnel.
- 22. be taught the procedures used to provide the care required, to enhance the Client's ability to provide as much self-care as possible.

Client Rights

- 23. designate an individual of the Client's choice, to receive instruction on care procedures, which are provided to the Client, so that the designated individual can assist the Client as much as possible.
- 24. have full access to the information regarding their health condition and their care records maintained by this Agency, to the extent required by law.
- 25. be spoken to or communicated within a manner or language they can understand.
- 26. speak freely without fear.
- 27. have their homes and property treated with respect.
- 28. be free from involuntary confinement, and physical or chemical restraints.
- 29. be free from any actions that would be interpreted as being abusive. e.g., intimidation, physical, sexual, verbal, mental, emotional, material or financial abuse, etc.
- 30. express complaints verbally or in writing about services or care that is or is not furnished, or about the lack of respect for your person or property by anyone who is furnishing services on behalf of the Agency.
- 31. be informed of procedures for initiating complaints about the delivery of service or resolving conflict, without fear of reprisal or retaliation.
- 32. be informed of the laws, regulations, and policies of the Agency.
- 33. be provided with the name, any applicable licensing or certification and staff position of all persons supplying, staffing or supervising the care and services you receive.
- 34. be informed of where ownership lies for any equipment or supplies provided in the provision of services.
- 35. receive written information on the care plan, including the names of Caregivers, Client and Care Coordinators assigned and the Agency's phone number.
- 36. provide input on which Caregiver they want and request a change of a Caregiver if desired.
- 37. be briefed on any procedure or treatment before it is carried out so that they can give informed consent.
- 38. receive regular supervision of their Caregiver.
- 39. be given written documentation on the Agency's Advance Directives Policy.
- 40. to die with dignity.
- 41. be informed, within a reasonable amount of time, of the Agency's plans to terminate the care or service or their intention to transfer their care to another agency, as applicable.
- 42. have their family or legal representative exercise the Client's rights when the legal representative is legally authorized to do so.

Contact Information:
Tru East Dignity HomeCare Corporation
3420 E. Shea Blvd. Suite 200
Phoenix, AZ 85028
Office Phone: 602-953-5376
Fax: 602-595-9977

Company Email: care@trueastdignity.com